RE: Written request for "red flag" removal

To whom it may concern

I, Delise Wilridge, am writing to you as it concerns having the "red flag" removed from my name on your website. I signed a Consent Agreement and Order on December 15, 2017 and completed the agreed to terms, on April 20, 2018. In July 2017, I received my Master of Social Work degree and at the time, was already working at Educational-Treatment Council, 2400 Merganser St # B, Lake Charles, LA 70615, as a Parenting Educator. In August of 2017, I began completing the needed requirements to become a Certified Social Worker in Louisiana to qualify to take the licensing exam. During the initial process of completing the application in December 2017, I was notified by the Louisiana Board of Social Work, of a disciplinary fine, ethic requirement, and open book test because I was practicing as a social worker without a license. This situation was unbeknownst to me, due to my not being aware of the application process and requirements for Louisiana State Board of Social Work Examiners, before graduating from college. I completed all the required tasks and was granted the Certified Social Work license in December 2017. In conclusion, I humbly submit this written request for the exclusion of the "red flag" from my credentials.

Thanking you in advance,

Delise D. Wilridge, LMSW

Hey Em,

Can you please add this to the upcoming board meeting agenda. I do not think that these positions would allow her to be supervised towards the LCSW, but I'd rather a board opinion.

Thank you!
Regina

Good afternoon, Regina my name is Shemika Bailey, I passed my LMSW exam on 12-13-21 and was looking into applying for LCSW supervision approval. I had a few questions and called down to LABSWE today and spoke to Kelly and she was very helpful and recommended I reach out to you to get assistance with my question. My question was do my current jobs meet criteria that affords me to be eligible for LCSW supervision. I have attached both job descriptions. Social Security Administration I work 40 hours a week and Unlimited Alternative to Change I work 20 hours a week. I can be reached via email, or my cellphone number is . Thank you so much!
