Dear LABSWE:

This letter is in support of Cancer Services of Baton Rouge being an "approved provider for Continuing Education." Cancer Services has been in our community for 60 years, and I believe social workers have been involved with the organization throughout that time, in one capacity or another.

One of the current social workers at the agency, Sarah Dulaney, MSW, LCSW-BACS, is applying to regain their approved provider status, which recently lapsed. The agency has plans to resume offering a Medical Social Work study group for social workers in the field, through which they want to help with no-cost continuing education opportunities. Cancer Services wants to offer this valuable service, and do not want attendance to be cost-prohibitive. Additionally, it will offer a great opportunity for social workers to network and collaborate. Social workers who attended the group in the past have stated they made a lot of great, lasting connections in the field, and learned about important social work-related topics and community programs.

Please approve Cancer Services as an approved provider of continuing education again. Thank you.

Kind regards,

Allyson Pardue, MSW, LCSW-BACS

To: Louisiana Board of Social Work Examiners,

It is with pleasure that I recommend Sarah Dulaney, LCSW-BACS to approve continuing education hours at Cancer Services of Greater Baton Rouge. I have worked with Ms. Dulaney as a professional colleague in my Social Work career during these last fifteen years. Further, Cancer Services is a reputable organization in Baton Rouge that serves those facing a cancer diagnosis. In Sarah, you have a social worker who possesses the skill set and professionalism consistent with the NASW's Code of Ethics.

Sarah Dulaney has an extensive background in the non-profit sector of Social Work. Sarah is highly reliable, dedicated and organized. She is always willing to offer her assistance and has an excellent rapport with her fellow coworkers, clients, and other community liaisons. Please accept my highest recommendation to allow Ms. Dulaney to approve CEUs for Cancer Services of Greater Baton Rouge to benefit others.

Re: Continuing Education

This letter is in support of Cancer Services of Greater Baton Rouge becoming an approved provider for continuing education. Sarah Dulaney is newly employed at the agency and her plan is to restart the Medical Social Work group. I was apart of this group in the past and found the medical social work group to be very useful for social workers in this field. I have made lasting connections with other oncology social workers at other organizations through this group.

I have worked alongside Sarah Dulaney at Ochsner Cancer Center for many years. I have found Sarah to be very organized and detail oriented. She was an excellent resource to other social workers within our agency. She is quick to assist others due to her many years of experience as a social worker. It gives me great joy that she is now employed at Cancer Services. This agency provides many resources for our oncology patients.

Please accept my recommendation to allow Sarah Dulaney to provide CEUS for Cancer Services of Greater Baton Rouge. This would benefit a great number of social workers in our community.

I am writing to you in support of the Jefferson Parish Human Services Authority (JPHSA) to be an authorized provider of continuing education events for social workers. The District Attorney's Pre-Trial Diversion Programs have benefited from a long and productive collaborative relationship with JPHSA for many years. Not only responding to the health and behavioral challenges of the Parish, JPHSA also could offer useful continuing education to the practitioners of the community stimulating the professionalism of those individual practitioners serving the members of the Parish. JPHSA reaches out to stakeholders to identify and address service provision and gaps in service. Offering continuing education will amplify the host of service providers with best practice knowledge for individuals to stay current with licensure requirements and improve service quality across the area. Both our adult and juvenile programs have benefited from our partnership with JPHSA.

Please consider the application to offer continuing education credits as fully supported by the Jefferson Parish District Attorney's Office.

RE: LABSWE CEU Authorization Recommendation for Jefferson Parish Human Services Authority (JPHSA)

Dear LABSWE:

It is certainly my honor to recommend approval of JPHSA's application to serve as a provider of CEU offerings and credits. I have known and worked with the agency and its staff members for over 16 years and have first-hand experience regarding the quality of the agency's professional training efforts. Additionally, JPHSA places great value on quality continuing education to ensure that each of the agency's service providers are able to give clients cutting edge treatment and services.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if I can provide any further information to assist in granting approval for the request.

Sincerely,

BEHAVIORAL

To Whom it May Concern,

I am writing to recommend JPHSA as a pre-approval organization for social work CEU trainings.

I have collaborated/worked with JPHSA for many years and have attended multiple high-quality trainings and events that JPHSA has facilitated. JPHSA consistently provides training that is engaging, informative, and well organized, with strong content and skilled trainers. JPHSA provides essential training to community members and organizations on a wide range of topics related to crisis intervention, de-escalation, trauma, grief, suicide, local resources, and more. Their expertise in this area provides much needed information to social workers on topics in which practices and resources are essential to be kept up to date. Not only does JPHSA provide impactful trainings to professionals, but they also work hard to provide these trainings to a variety of service providers - ensuring knowledge is spread across practices. I believe that being a pre-approval organization will allow JPHSA to get information and training to more social workers throughout Louisiana.

Please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any further questions.

Sincerely,

My name is Dr. Mark Drake and I am currently the Behavioral Health Supervisor, for CrescentCare Health Centers in New Orleans. I am writing at the request of Dr. Holly McKenney, faculty at SUNO School of Social Work, in support the school's application for renewal as a designated Continuing Education Preapproval Organization.

As a clinical supervisor it's reassuring to know that not only does SUNO provide quality, CEUs on a regular basis, it also approves CEUs for outside organizations. This is such a benefit because it expands access and the availability of a more diverse number of continuing education topics to enhance the professional development of our social work community.

In closing, I support the Millie M. Charles School of Social Work at Southern University in New Orleans (SUNO) in the reapplication to continue serving as a Continuing Education Approval Organization for the Louisiana State Board of Social Work Examiners (LABSWE).

If you require any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me at mark.drake@crescentcare.org or 504-343-3613
